Congratulations to Cardinal Spring sports teams!

Plainfield, NJ – September 6, 2018 - The Varsity Baseball Team, the Varsity Softball Team and the Men's Tennis Team all won their respective Union County Divisional Championships earlier this year!

The Trophies were accepted by Plainfield Athletics Director John Quinn on Behalf of Tennis Coach Dave Cheung whose that's team has now won back-to-back titles in 2017 and 2018. Baseball Coach Sean Radu whose team has also now won back-to-back titles and Coach Huff's Softball team, which also won their division Championship this spring.

Mr. Quinn and the coaches extended their congratulations to all the athletes who contributed to Plainfield's UCC Division Champions!

"It has been many years since our Cardinals have won three championships in the same athletic season!" said John Quinn.

As to what these accomplishments mean to the team and to Plainfield Public Schools' sports. He said, "There's a resurgence in our athletic program. We are getting more competitive in all sports and it's paying dividends with three division championships. Our students are getting scholarships Jaylah White (Softball), Waldy Arias (Baseball), and Leonte Langston Wilder, (A Senior this year, is deep into the states and he plays football and tennis.) Congratulations to all our wonderful athletes."
